BARBAROUS TERATMENT .- Six officers who served in the island of Samar testified at Manilla yesterday before the courtmartial which is trying Major Edwin F. Glenn, of the Fifth Infantry, or the charge of unlawfully killing seven prisoners of war in Samar. The witnesses mostly detailed the enemy's acts of barbarity, such as burying persons alive, mutilating live and dead persons and torturing and murdering prisoners and natives in sympathy with the Americans. The defense produced an order of General Lucban, directing the use of poison against Americans. The court admitted as evidence the captured report revealing as evidence the captured report revealing additional features of the plot which led to the Balangiga massiere. The wit-nesses agreed that the policy of Briga-dier General Jacob H. Smith was neces-sary and that it ended the insurrection in Source. Contain Smith testified the in Samar. Captain Smith testified that the friendly natives who were refugees in the mountains in his district petitione to be allowed to return to the town and promised to support the Americans. Captain Swaine, said the witness, told General Smith they would die of starvation if left in the mountains, and Gen. Smith, the witness added, said: "Let them die. The sooner they are dead the sooner we shall have peace."

ABANDONED BY HER LOVER .- Paities reaching Birmingham, Ala., on Wednesday from Winston county, the most remote county in northwestern Alabama, report that Miss Etta Aldredge, the pretty daughter of the sheriff of Blount county, who recently eloped with Mayben Murphree, a prisoner, whom she released from jail at Oneonta, during her father's absence, while she was acting as jailer, has been found in the mountains, where she was abandoned by her lover, who is still at large. A dozen searching parties have been scouring all the northwestern counties of the State since the elopement occurred ten days ago. After the release of Murphree and a fellow-prisoner named Louis Gurley, the latter charged with murder, Miss Aldredge and Murphree left in the night in a buggy which a friend of Murphree had in waiting. They were gone ten hours before their absence was discovered. Murphree was under conviction for adultery and was in jail swaiting appeal to the Supreme Court. He was a handsome young fellow, and won the affections of Miss Alcredge and his own liberty while she was assisting her father, the sheriff, in his official duties. SAYS HE WAS NOT KNOCKED DOWN

The Salt Lake Utah Herald prints a signed statement from Champion James J. Jeffries concerning his recent bout with Jack Munroe, at Butte, Mont. Jef-fries declares that Munroe not only did not knock him down, but during the entire four rounds did not land a clean punch. Jeffries claims to have been deliberately jobbed out of the fight, as the third round, in which he sent Munroe to the mat for an eight count, he was cut short fully a minute. "I made no attempt whatever to land on Munroe for the first two says Jeffries, "as I saw he knew absolutely nothing about the game In the fourth round I could not get at him, as he repeatedly clinched or fell to floor, and in this manner he man-

larities are generally the beginning of a woman's troubles. With the vitality at a low ebb, the blood weakened, the digestion disordered, she goes about palefaced, hollow-eyed and haggard, a piteous contrast to the blooming health of her former self. But over 1,000,000 women have found health again by taking Wine of Cardui. As a regulator of the menstrual periods Wine of Cardui has never been known to fail. It has seldom failed to restore perfect health, even in the most persistent and aggravated case of weakness. Miss Ida M. Snyder, of No. 535 Bergen Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has used Wine of Cardui and she says it helped her into a new life. Health to Miss Snyder is worth a great deal. She is an attractive young woman with intellectual attainments and she occupies the position of Treasurer of the Brooklyn East End Art Club. This position marks her as a person of intellect, culture and refinement and it speaks highly of the respect and trust her fellow women have in her. She writes:

"If women would pay more attention" "If women would pay more attention medicines are offered you to-day.
